

The Archive 1.6

May 2021

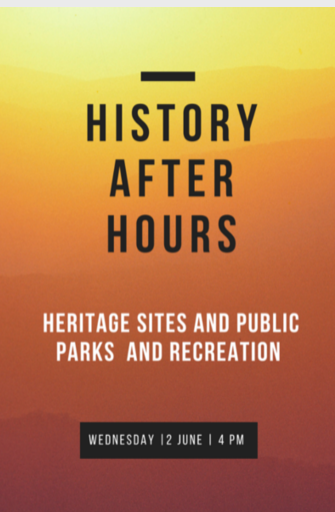

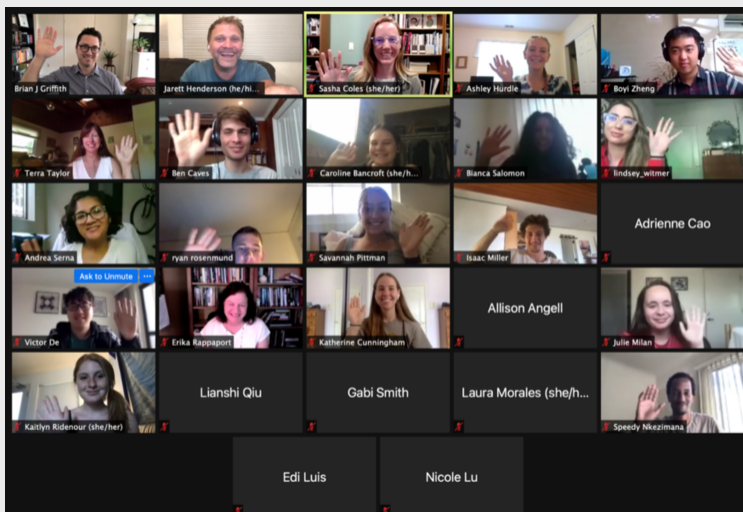

Thank you to all who participated in alumni weekend and to those who contributed their alumni updates for our archive, which remains open for submissions. And while we often celebrate our department in this newsletter, this issue includes some sad news. Read my letter for more.

A Note from the Chair

If you know of anyone who would like to receive our newsletter, they can sign up here:

Sign Up for Our Newsletter

History After Hours

This quarter Professor Jarett Henderson launched the series History After Hours for the students in his World History class. Through the series, he invites speakers (some graduate students and postdocs) to explore how their skills apply to work in digital humanities, podcasting, archives, museums, heritage at state parks, etc. While Professor Henderson created the series with his students in mind, he invites interested members of the public to join as well.

Read more about History After Hours

Join the History After Hours Zoom Session

History Grads Win Teaching Awards

While navigating the uncertainties of this COVID year, these Teaching Assistants went above and beyond for their students. Donna Doan Anderson and Mika Thornburg won the Faculty Senate's Outstanding Teaching Assistant Award. Sarah Dunne won the Graduate Student Association's Excellence in Teaching Award. We couldn't be happier that their hard work and dedication to our students were recognized with these prestigious awards.

Read more about History graduate students

Alumna Spotlight: Alison Rose Jefferson

For this issue's spotlight, meet Alison Rose Jefferson, PhD (2015). As a public intellectual, she works in various capacities as historian, author, speaker, and consultant. Her academic training is a brilliant example of our Public History program at work.

Read more about her here!

Alumni Updates

Our alumni archive is growing, thanks to all of you who submitted updates on your life, work, and furry friends! We loved reading your stories and looking through the photos you submitted. In fact, we have included a selection for you to read here. If you haven't had a chance to submit your own update, you can do so through this link!

Read about where alumni are now

Connect with us:

Share this email:

Choose the emails you would like to receive by managing your preferences.

If you do not wish to receive any emails from UC Santa Barbara Institutional Advancement (this includes event invitations, newsletters, networking opportunities and stories of philanthropy), you can opt out of them ALL using TrueRemove®

UC Santa Barbara
Santa Barbara, CA | 93106 US

This email was sent to .
To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.