

CODY STEPHENS

Curriculum Vitae

731 Elkus Walk #202, Goleta, CA, 93117 * 619-358-3508 * cstephens@umail.ucsb.edu

EDUCATION

|  |     |                   |            |
|--|-----|-------------------|------------|
| University of California, Santa Barbara       | PhD | History           | June, 2018 |
| First Field: Intellectual History                    |     |                   |            |
| Second Field: General U.S. History                   |     |                   |            |
| Third Field: Twentieth Century International History |     |                   |            |
| Fourth Field: Latin American History                 |     |                   |            |
| San Diego State University                    | MA  | Political Science | 2010       |
| Concentration: International Relations               |     |                   |            |
| Advisor: Emanuele Saccarelli                         |     |                   |            |
| San Diego State University                    | BA  | Political Science | 2008       |

DOCTORAL DISSERTATION

“Defining the Monster: The Social Science and Rhetoric of Neo-Imperialism in North and South America, 1945-1973”

Nelson Lichtenstein (Chair), Alice O’Connor, and Salim Yaqub

PUBLICATIONS

“The Accidental Marxist: Andre Gunder Frank and the “Neo-Marxist” Theory of Underdevelopment, 1958-1967,” Modern Intellectual History, (April 2016).

LECTURES, PRESENTATIONS, AND INVITED TALKS

Paper Presentation, Organization of American Historians Annual Conference, “Dependency and Hegemony: Epistemological Debates in Dependency Theory, 1957-1973,” April 2018.

Paper Presentation, Society for U.S. Intellectual History Annual Conference, “The Accidental Marxist: Andre Gunder Frank and the Origins of ‘Neo-Marxist’ Dependency Theory,” Oct. 16, 2015.

Paper Presentation, Beyond the New Deal Order Conference, “Silvio Frondizi and the Argentine Anti-Stalinist Left, 1945-1955,” Sept. 25, 2015.

Guest Speaker, Colloquium for the Study of Work Labor and Political Economy, UCSB, “Silvio Frondizi and the Argentine Anti-Stalinist Left, 1945-1955,” May 28, 2015.

Paper Presentation, London School of Economics Cold War Centre Graduate Student Conference, “The Accidental Marxist: Andre Gunder Frank and the Origins of ‘Neo-Marxist’ Dependency Theory,” May 1, 2015.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Primary Instructor:

UCSB

|                                  |                        |
|----------------------------------|------------------------|
| World History 1700-Present       | Summer 2018, Fall 2018 |
| Introduction to Academic Writing | 2016-2018              |
| Labor Studies Research Seminar   | Spring 2015            |
| US Labor History                 | Summer 2014            |

Santa Barbara City College

|                                 |             |
|---------------------------------|-------------|
| US History Survey, 1865-Present | Summer 2018 |
|---------------------------------|-------------|

Teaching Assistant:

UCSB

|                                      |                                       |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| The American People (WWI-present)    | Spring 2013, Spring 2012              |
| The American People (Jackson-WWI)    | Winter 2014, Winter 2013, Winter 2012 |
| World History (Ancient-1000 CE)      | Fall 2012                             |
| World History (1700-Present)         | Fall 2011                             |
| Political Science 101: U.S. Politics | 2009-2010                             |

FELLOWSHIPS, HONORS, AND AWARDS

|   |      |
|---|------|
| History Associates Fellowship   | 2015 |
| Humanities Research Grant, UCSB   | 2015 |
| Richard and Jeanne Williams Endowed Graduate Fellowship                 | 2014 |
| History Associates Fellowship   | 2014 |
| All-UC Group Summer Data Fellowship Grant                               | 2012 |
| SDSU Department of Political Science Outstanding Graduate Student Award | 2010 |

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND SERVICE

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Participant, Writing 2 Curriculum Committee                      | 2017      |
| Assistant, Center for Cold War Studies and International History | 2016      |
| Head Steward, UAW local 2865                                     | 2015-2016 |
| President, History Graduate Students’ Association                | 2013-2014 |
| Graduate Students’ Association                                   | 2014-2015 |